HOST AND GUESTS: LORD BERNERS WITH LADY ALEXANDRA HAIG (left), MRS. WOGAN PHILIPPS, AND (right) LADY WEYMOUTE.

Having had a 100-foot high tower made to measure on Faringdon Hill, Lord Berners decided that a party in honour of its opening was clearly indicated. This duly materialised, and as it was held on Guy Fawkes Day, complete with fireworks, there was no question of things not going with a bang. Faringdon House was full to the brim with guests, and they all appeared impressed on being introduced to the cause of the celebration. On a clear day six counties can be seen from the top of this new Berkshire monument. What exactly Lord Berners intends to use it for is not reported. Possibly as a get-away from distractions when writing his ballet music! Lord Weymouth, seen with Captain J. Powell, who trains near Marlborough, is not standing again for the Frome division, but he has been busy on behalf of the Conservative candidate, Mrs. H. B. Tate. Mrs. Wogan Philipps writes clever novels as Rosamund Lehmann
